

I am writing about the current issue of allowing LPFM stations to overpower current FM stations. I regularly listen to an FM station and I don't think it is at all fair to permit something to overpower them when they are already licensed. (That should be illegal!) I like the service I am receiving and the station that I am listening to and I thoroughly oppose expansion of the LPFM stations in this way. Current stations should have priority.